As Americans celebrate the coming of the New Year, Freedom Financial Group will be starting up a massive debt elimination campaign, offering free one on one debt analysis nationwide.

PR9.NET December 28, 2006 - Los Angeles, CA - Total debt elimination providers from FFG will be meeting and working with consumers at live seminars or one on one in cities across America, sharing their most powerful strategies to help millions of people eliminate their debts including mortgages.

Personal debt relief is a burning issue as over 200 million individuals, families, and businesses in America are overburdened with heavy debts, many which are in denial or have no way except hardship programs to find a solution. Sound planning, taking control of your finances, knowing where your money is going each month can find you extra money allowing your money to work for you. Freedom Financial Group with its partners can save individuals an average of 150k.

Becoming debt free is a choice, no matter where you stand financially that can have major influences emotionally and financially that can only prove beneficial. Please contact Andrea Das at andreadas@sbcglobal.net or 1-818-998-0125 to find out of meetings in your area or to schedule your free risk-free evaluation today.
