The Catskills is a great mountain destination for winter skiing, snowboarding, and fun! Travelers delight in the wide array of lodging options, myriad of ski resorts, and numerous things to see and do.

PR9.NET January 01, 2007 - Catskills, NY – Travelers looking to escape from the shoveling and scraping can just relax and enjoy the beautiful white snow that's falling in the Catskill Mountains of New York – the perfect winter getaway.

Winter in the Catskills brings with it a myriad of reasons for a getaway, be it a grand retreat or a weekend rendezvous. With everything ranging from quaint antique shops to the non-stop excitement of skiing and snowboarding at Hunter Mountain or Windham Mountain, the Catskills are the place to be this year!

Explore some of the great hiking trails and walking paths in the heart of the Catskill Mountains on foot, cross country skis, or snowmobile. The ultimate in luxurious getaways can be found at the Mohonk Mountain House, a Victorian Castle set high atop a ridge overlooking the Hudson River Valley. Indulge in a rejuvenating spa treatment or warm up in front of a fireplace on a chilly night. Warming up in a private in-room Jacuzzi, or resort sauna or steam room are also traveler favorites.

When making travel plans, Catskills visitors have found solace in the fact that they can turn to trusted professionals who have been to, and can provide first-hand travel advice about all of the properties in this mountainous region. Be it a luxurious historic retreat, a dude ranch, a charming bed and breakfast, or a family resort, the source more travelers recommend is CatskillsReservations.com.
