PR9.NET January 05, 2007 - Ahmedabad, India - There are various opinions of different people as to the origin of Valentine's Day. Some experts quotes that St. Valentine who was Roman punished for denying giving up the Christianity. St. Valentine died on February 14, 269 A.D., the same day that had been dedicated to love lotteries. Legends also say that St. Valentine left a little note for his friend, a jailer's daughter and signed it "From Your Valentine".

Other aspects of the story say that St. Valentine was a priest and served temple during the supremacy of Emperor Claudius. He declared that not one could marry under his reign. Even after Emperor Claudius passed this law, St. Valentine kept on performing marriage ceremonies secretly. Valentine jailed for defying him. At that time people threw flowers and notes to St. Valentine. They wanted him to know that they, too, believed in love. In this way Valentine was famous.
