Hershey, Pennsylvania is a fabulous place for enchanting winter vacations with pampering at world-class spas, sightseeing, and attractions galore.

PR9.NET January 05, 2007 - Hershey, PA – The winter months in Hershey Pennsylvania offer the perfect getaway escape for travelers seeking a little solitude and rest and relaxation.

Hershey, PA offers winter travelers a taste of the beautiful, snowy Pennsylvania countryside while surrounding them in the sweet chocolate splendor of a favorite vacation destination. With so much to do, even during the winter, Hershey's most popular winter indulgences are the world-famous Chocolate Spa with its one-of-a-kind luxurious treatments; Hershey Gardens which is now open year-round boasting eye-catching winter blooming plants and some native wildlife; and The Hershey Theater which features some of the best touring Broadway shows as well as classical music and dance.

In honor of Valentine's Day, Hershey celebrates Chocolate-Covered February, a month-long celebration with chocolate-themed meals, cooking and decorating with chocolate demonstrations, special spa samplers, and children's activities. Another popular favorite is the winter escape spa package running New Year's through April 5th at both the Hershey Lodge and The Hotel Hershey.

Those visitors who won't make it out to Hershey until the spring or summer have so much to look forward to. World-class golfing offers outdoor enthusiasts a fun day in the sun while Hershey Park is cooking up something new and exciting. The Boardwalk at Hershey Park, opening this year, will offer a unique adventure for visitors with more than 100 experiences exhibiting the best sights and sounds of an old-fashioned East Coast boardwalk including five water adventures including the largest water-play structure in the world.

Visitors of all ages are sure to have a blast exploring Hershey, Pennsylvania. While experiencing the small town hospitality, visitors will be surrounded by a myriad of sightseeing pleasures, and end the day with a clean, comfortable bed to crash in.
