GizMac Accessories Will Exhibit New iPod and Xserve Products During the MacWorld Expo

PR9.NET January 06, 2007 - Torrance, CA – GizMac Accessories, designer and manufacturer of innovative products for the iPod and Xserve platforms, announce new iPod and Xserve products to be shown at MacWorld.

GizMac will be exhibiting in a bigger way this year at the MacWorld Expo in San Francisco. Increasing their booth size to a thirty by twenty foot space, GizMac will display and demonstrate several new products for the first time during the show.

Known for the Titan line of iPod cases and accessories, GizMac plans to show an expanded line of iPod products at their MacWorld booth. The current Titan family of iPod cases and accessories will be joined by new iPod products next week when the expo begins.

GizMac's XRackPro2 noise reducing server rack product line will also be joined by a couple new products at the MacWorld Expo. Although GizMac recently released a 4U and a 25U version of their XRackPro2, they plan to exhibit additional new XRack products in their MacWorld booth.

"MacWorld will be extra exciting for us this year." Says Ken Vitto, Director of Marketing for GizMac Accessories, "Our iPod cases and accessories, as well as our noise reduction server rack product lines, will have great new products to show off throughout the expo."

The MacWorld Expo exhibition portion runs from January 9 through 12 at Moscone Center in San Francisco, GizMac invites attendees to visit booth S2410 in the South Hall to see their new and existing products.
