Guarded by the majestic shape of Table Mountain and bordered by white-sanded shores on the Atlantic Ocean, Cape Town stands as one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Trendy beaches, vibrant nightlife, amazing mountain views, and near-by wine routes make Cape Town the top travel destination of South Africa. Rentalo.com (<http://rentalo.com>) is a key source for travelers looking for the perfect accommodation in this wonderful city. Be it an apartment at the city bowl, or a house at a quiet suburb; a hotel along Clifton Beach, or a Dutch cottage in the vast wine lands; Rentalo.com has the right accommodation for every travel personality.

PR9.NET January 17, 2007 - Miami Lakes, FL - At Victoria and Alfred (V&A) Waterfront, the working harbor offers an incredible maritime scenario where hundreds of shops, restaurants and cafés sparkle along a large and colorful pedestrian area. Accommodations vary from luxurious hotels to self-catering apartments, all within easy walking distance from malls and restaurants. Using Rentalo.com, travelers can book suitable properties such as V&A Waterfront Marina Cape Town apartment, Sonwyk Cape Town Vacation Rental, and The Table Bay at the Waterfront Hotel, among others.

Along the west coast, visitors find on the Atlantic Seaboard the most popular beaches of the city, such as Clifton and Camp's Bay, populated of all kinds of restaurants and beach bars. Hundreds of apartments, vacation rentals and guest houses are available for avid fun-seeking tourists, some of which include Camps Bay Beach, 3-bed self catering accommodation and Seasonsfind, Camp's Bay vacation rental.

Also, within minutes from the city, tourists and business travelers have a wide variety of alternative travel destinations. A few minutes north of Cape Town, Leisure Bay offers the closest view of Robben Island, former prison of Nelson Mandela; a number of near-by world class golf courses; and long calm beaches along the Atlantic shore, where whales, dolphins and seals can be seen along the year. Some examples of accommodations available through Rentalo.com include Leisure Bay Self Catering Apartments and Leisure Bay Luxury accommodation.

Wine lovers can visit South Africa's oldest vineyards at the Constantia valley, only 20-minute drive south from the city. Or, head east for 45-minutes into the Cape Town Wine Routes, through Stellenbosh and Franschoek, in an unforgettable journey through world-class hotels and restaurants, traditional cottages and incredibly green, mountainous landscapes. Through Rentalo.com, travelers can find their perfect getaway for tasting the best of South African wines, from traditional town hotels such as the Eendracht Boutique Hotel in Stellenbosh, to comfortable bed and breakfasts such as Southern Light Country House in the Constantia region.

Away from the crowd of trendy beaches, those seeking a quieter environment will find warmer waters at False Bay, on the south-eastern coasts of the region. St James, Kalk Bay, Fish Hoek and Boulder's Beach, with its famous penguin colony, are popular family destinations. Whales can also be seen between the months of September and December. At Rentalo.com, travelers can find family-friendly accommodations, such as A whale of a lifetime Guest House on Fish Hoek.
