Park City Based Message Table Outlet has awarded their initial web design and search engine marketing contract to Utah Web Services

PR9.NET January 17, 2007 - Salt Lake City, Utah – The Message Table Outlet , one of the largest distributors of Massage Tables, Massage Chairs, and Massage Supplies in the U.S. They have awarded the initial design of their new E-commerce site and subsequent Search Engine Marketing needs to Utah Web Services.

The Message Table Outlet (MTO) has been in the massage table business for years with a successful track record building large and well managed operations. With the proliferation of new massage operations springing up all over the country, MTO is well poised to take advantage of this extraordinary growth, but supplying all of the necessary massage equipment and materials required for any professional massage therapist to get started the right way.

The senior management staff of MTO has extensive experience in the industry both on the massage table management side, but also with a tremendous background in online marketing and success.

Following the initial presentation by Utah Web Services to Senior Management of MTO the comment was made, "Your methods are creative and very original and your history of success speaks for itself." A very sophisticated marketing strategy was created for MTO and its diverse operations. This strategy is currently being deployed now that the site is completed. The new site can be viewed at www.MessageTableOutlet.com.
