In this writer's opinion, GAP is not only genius, but a definite sign of things to come. The GAP system takes full advantage of the Worldwide scope of the Internet, and the brilliance of automation is appealing to a mass market.

PR9.NET February 01, 2007 - Chicago, IL – The Launch of Global Abundance Program, a Division of Universal Software Consulting, has been the most eagerly awaiting Internet marketing event of 2007. Members of the new Global Abundance Program (GAP) will be the first to market this truly extraordinary home based business opportunity to the World.

Never before has there been an Internet business quite like GAP. There have been, and continue to be, many excellent and high quality online businesses, but GAP has taken the best from all of the others and combined them into one very profitable & powerful marketing system. GAP pursues excellence and planning for the long term by complying with all best practices and legal standards for integrity on the Internet today.

"We are working very hard to give our members all the tools and all the reasons in the world to be able to make a substantial income on the Internet; and we are working even harder to remove all the reasons why people fail to make money from home. We are a Global company with a Global market, and now the World can be yours with the Global Abundance Program," say GAP creators Mike Churchill & Tod Bell.

The products that GAP offers will include wealth creation products, professional Internet marketing training, Forex training, Real Estate Investment educational products, as well as hard copies (shipped to the new member's home) of GAP's wealth and financial improvement training. "GAP will enter the global market with the goal of improving the life of every person who joins this business," says Mike Churchill.

GAP is no doubt one of the most powerful online training systems and wealth creation offerings in the World today. "We have video trainings, live workshops and exciting money making tools; all rolled into one business," states Tod Bell.

Not only that, but GAP is set up to donate a percentage of every corporate network payment to missions and charities around the world that are working to alleviate suffering and poverty. "Members of GAP will be proud to know that 10% of the payments received will be paid forward to humanitarian projects Worldwide," says Tod.
