The leading voice industry podcast, VOX Talk, and the Voices.com Blog Network are now welcoming sponsors on a monthly basis.

PR9.NET January 30, 2007 - Toronto, Canada – Voices.com, the #1 Voice Over Marketplace, is the content creator and distributor of the industry's hottest and most up to date blog network and podcast. Voices.com connects voice over professionals with people who need to hire them to record voice-overs for commercials, videogames, podcasts, audio books, business presentations, flash presentations, industrial narration, and telephone applications.

The audiences of the Voices.com Blog Network and VOX Talk podcast are largely comprised of people who use their voice to make a living, consisting of voice actors, voice talents, voice artists, voice over professionals, voiceover coaches, instructors, authors, production facilities, and recording studios. Qualified advertisers for this niche in entertainment and production include influencers in publishing (authors), recording studio equipment producers, software developers, educators, and music production services.

Voices.com presents advertisers with an exclusive opportunity to get in front of thousands of unique visitors and listeners each day. The blog network sponsorship includes featured ad placement on the VOX Daily blog, Casting Voices blog, Ask the Voice Cat blog, Master VO blog, and The Biz blog, all sources that feed the industry on a regular basis and initiate conversations, spread ideals, and connect people to each other.

Advertisers interested in promoting their products or services by means of podcasting will find the VOX Talk Podcast a desirable program to sponsor. The VOX Talk Podcast, available for free subscription via Apple iTunes, is published twice a week, produced with contributions from professional voice over talents and hosted by Voices.com co-founder Stephanie Ciccarelli. The VOX Talk Podcast, a popular companion for voice talent and voice actors, provides listeners with a variety of voices to entertain and topics to consider whether they are commuting to a place of work, enjoying their morning coffee or recharging between recording sessions.

VOX Talk host and Voices.com Blog Network Editor, Stephanie Ciccarelli says, "Partnering as an advertiser with Voices.com is one of the smartest, most strategic advertising moves a company targeting the voice and recording industry can make. Our podcast and blogs are respected throughout the community and serve as a primary means for people to learn about the industry and further develop their craft."
