Emanio, Inc. provides EDI integration to IFS' ERP suite through its Unite!™ and TradingPartner Integrator™ mapping software.

PR9.NET February 05, 2007 - Berkeley, CA – Emanio, Inc. today announced the immediate availability of a new adapter for its Unite! and TradingPartner Integrator Data mapping software packages. Adapters provide pre-built templates for IFS Inc.'s popular ERP software that allow owners of Emanio's Unite! and TradingPartner Integrator packages to map their data quickly and with minimal effort. "These new adapters continue our commitment to providing software that is easy to use and powerful," said Emanio CEO, KG Charles-Harris. "These adapters are just the beginning of a concentrated effort to make Data Integration not only powerful but significantly easier," continued Mr. Charles-Harris. <http://www.the-edi-software.com/>

Emanio's newly announced adapters for IFS's ERP systems have a retail price of $4,996 and are available immediately to existing customers of Emanio's Unite!™ and TradingPartner Integrator™ products. Emanio's adapters can be used to accelerate the deployment of maps into the target systems and can cut down on deployment and development times significantly.

Emanio plans to deliver additional EDI integration adapters throughout the course of 2007 to continue to provide easy to use, easy to deploy solutions for its customers on a world-wide basis.
