PR9.NET February 06, 2007 - Mumbai, India - Megasoft Limited (BSE CODE NO: 532408), a transnational Intellectual Property-driven, product-based technology company, today announced that its telecom division XIUS has won the HP Software (CME) Business Partner of the Year Award, for the EMEA region. The award recognizes partners in Europe, the Middle East and Africa that have demonstrated outstanding commitment to HP Communication, Media & Entertainment (CME) business group, thereby increasing the quality of HP.

XIUS (The Telecom Division of Megasoft) has been an HP OpenCall Partner since 2001 and is a key partner to HP for its complete OpenCall portfolio of products covering signaling, media and next generation signaling technologies. The unique suite of solutions developed by XIUS has allowed OpenCall to break into new accounts and new geographies. Over the last five years XIUS has grown several times over, both organically and inorganically. This award illustrates its capabilities in providing innovative solutions that are both customized and cost effective to support applications sales and implementation, developed jointly to meet individual customer needs and help grow their revenues

Mr. GV Kumar, Managing Director & CEO, Megasoft Ltd. & XIUS, stated "XIUS has had a longstanding relationship with HP and our partnership has benefited both of us immensely. Together we have worked on intricate issues of the telecom industry and come up with innumerable solutions, enabling us to put ready-to-deploy applications right into the hands of service providers.

"This acknowledgement from the global IT major will add impetus to our efforts and facilitate opening of new growth opportunities in the EMEA region," added Mr. Kumar.
