The beauty of Ft Myers Beach, Florida has long been attracting visitors who are seeking safe, family fun with an unforgettable beach destination. The winter months are some of the finest in this Gulf Coast town, but accommodations are often priced very well.

PR9.NET February 08, 2007 - Ft. Myers Beach, FL – Ft. Myers Beach, often dubbed as "The City of Palms," offers the perfect Florida vacation experience for travelers of all ages combining fun family vacationing with exciting nightlife.

The incredible beauty of the Gulf of Mexico, with its white sandy Florida beaches, stunning shallow turquoise waters, and gently swaying palm trees invite travelers to come enjoy and relax. Much to their delight, travelers are sure to find more than enough shells to fill their suitcase with souvenirs. Located on seven mile Estero Island, Fort Myers Beach situated serenely among the mangrove forests has long been touted as one of the "world's safest family beaches" because of its sloping shoreline. Its unique island landscape provides the perfect place for outdoor water sports and observing wildlife. Lovers Key State Park, most well known for its pristine beachfront, is perfect for exploring with great hiking and biking trails.

Families will delight in Imaginarium, a science museum featuring more than 60 interactive exhibits while history buffs will revel in our nation's history as they visit Thomas Edison and Henry Ford's winter estates. Nights are spent delighting in the tastes of the Gulf and savoring the freshest catch of the day while enjoying live bands and entertainment in Ft. Myers' lively downtown district. Just about everything is within walking distance from most of the Beach's major hotels and resorts.

Fort Myers has captured the hearts of travelers far and wide receiving thousands of visitors from Germany, France, and the United Kingdom each year. A little slice of heaven, Ft. Myers offers much-needed family escapes. More information about Ft. Myers, its wide array of accommodations ranging from historic beach cottages to full-service resorts, and all that this warm beach town has to offer is available by calling 1.866.807.5252 or visiting this comprehensive online travel guide: <http://www.FtMyersBest.com>.
