PR9.NET February 27, 2007 - San Leandro, CA: San Leandro Honda, the Honda dealer in San Leandro, California is glad to exhibit the new Honda five door hatch-back, Fit 2007 at their dealership of Honda vehicles.

Fit 2007, a multi utility vehicle is fun to drive, delivering a fuel economy of 33 mpg in the city and 38 mpg on a highway. The two trim levels of the front-drive Honda Fit 2007 (base and sport) have a 1.5-liter, 109 hp VTEC four-cylinder engine that produces 105 pound-feet of torque at 4,800 rpm.

Incredible interior room is the most prominent feature of the Honda Fit 2007. A high roof, front and backseats that can be folded down into different configurations enable the Fit 2007 to accommodate passengers or cargo of just about any size. A cockpit set with slick dark-blue-backlit gauges, comfy and easy to grip sporty steering wheel, cup holders in the rear doors, abundance of headroom and front legroom and under-seat storage are the other features.

The Honda Fit 2007 has a design with a strong European influence. Fit boasts a balanced, sporty look given by the wheels outfitted at the farthest corners and an aggressive look contributed by the abruptly raked windshield. The 2007 Honda Fit delivers a sports-car like handling. With alert steering, the Honda Fit remains solid and well-balanced on the road, even on the corners.

Safety measures included in the 2007 Honda Fit are standard dual-stage, dual-threshold front air bags, side-impact air bags for both the driver and front passenger, side curtain air bags, four-wheel antilock brakes, electronic brake distribution, outboard lower anchors, tethers for children (LATCH) and the childproof rear door locks.

San Leandro Honda (www.slhonda.com) has new and used Honda models like Honda Accord Coupe, Honda Accord Hybrid, Honda Accord Sedan, Honda Civic Sedan, Honda Civic Hybrid, Honda Civic Coupe, Honda Civic Si, Honda Civic Si Sedan, Honda Element, Honda CR-V, Honda Fit, Honda Odyssey, Honda Pilot, Honda Ridgeline and Honda S2000 in their new vehicles inventory.
