Voices.com's 150-page eBook "Definitive Guide to Voice Over Success" continues to receive rave reviews from professional voice talents and beginners.

PR9.NET March 07, 2007 - Toronto, Canada – Industry leader Voices.com, the voice marketplace, has proven that quality and time go hand in hand with the continuing success of their first eBook entitled "Definitive Guide to Voice Over Success", a comprehensive eBook that focuses on how the voice talent and voice over artists of today can capitalize on the Internet marketplace and promote their voices online.

"Definitive Guide to Voice Over Success", now in its 2nd edition, remains one of the most trusted eBooks on the voice over industry, providing information in a conversational style that teaches and entertains. Topics covered in the voice over eBook include aspects of starting a voice over business, personal branding, home recording studios, recording and editing techniques, a list of talent agencies and casting directors based in Los Angeles and New York, and ways to optimize websites for search engines such as Google, Yahoo!, and MSN.

The eBook comes with several bonuses including some sample scripts to record voice over demos from, royalty-free music and sound effects, and customizable business documents to facilitate the everyday business activities of voice over artists and voice actors.

Author, Stephanie Ciccarelli says, "The Definitive Guide to Voice Over Success is a book that no voice over artist should be without. The business tips, audio recording techniques, business documents and online marketing strategies are priceless and a mandatory part of all working voice over artists' tool kits."
