Twenty-fifth Year in Business Should Be Best Year Ever

PR9.NET March 26, 2007 - Tualatin, OR – First quarter 2007 revenue for Hollander Consultants is the strongest in the history of the practice management consulting company and executives foresee a highest ever year in terms of revenue.

Hollander Consultants is celebrating its silver anniversary in 2007 and projections for the growth of the company are the best in its history. There have been a number of notable changes within the company over the past year that are considered to be key actions that have positively affected the performance of the company.

Hollander Consultants moved from downtown Portland last year into a new location in Tualatin in the heart of a burgeoning retail district that spans the cities of Tualatin and Lake Oswego, Oregon.

"We've had some incredible changes over the past year that have seriously affected our bottom line. We added a service consultant to revitalize previous clients, we bolstered our referral department with competent and aggressive staff, and our new location is a showcase for who we are and what we do," said Fred King, CEO of Hollander Consultants.

Larry Silver, president of Hollander Consultants said, "We are bursting at the seams already. Within the next few months, we will be adding a state-of-the-art call center to enhance the efficiency of our current team and we will be growing our sales team to more solidly ensure the long-term survival of the company."

Hollander Consultants is well known for the professionalism of its staff, the experience of its consultants, and its excellent quality control division. With clients all over North America and from coast-to-coast, Hollander Consultants' services are in high demand from its core market base.

Hollander Consultants was named in 2005 as one of the top 50 companies to work for in Oregon by Oregon Business magazine, the leading publication for Oregon businesses.

Hollander Consultants is one of the top national consulting firms in the United States and Canada for the combined dentistry, optometry and veterinary professions. Hollander Consultants uses the administrative systems developed by business management pioneer, L. Ron Hubbard.
