When springtime arrives and overworked executives and families are looking to take a much-needed getaway, Marco Island Florida offers the perfect serene, sun-swept beaches and myriad of sightseeing pleasures.

PR9.NET March 30, 2007 - Marco Island FL – Marco Island's sub-tropical climate offers the perfect place to escape. Those lagging behind after a long winter will find refuge in this "island in the sun" which boasts stunning beauty exclusive to the palm-lined shores found on Florida's southern Gulf Coast.

Located just south of Naples in the pristine Ten Thousand Islands, Marco Island draws visitors the world over to its endless sun-swept beaches. The coast which is lined by lavish estates and an exquisite array of entertainment and restaurants like Blue Fusion and the Snook Inn provides the ideal place for delighting in a little rest and relaxation.

The year-round warm weather provides travelers with abundant opportunity to enjoy recreational activities like water sports and fun in the sun. Exploration by land, boat, or air provides a wonderful way to enjoy the great Florida outdoors. Visitors enjoy fly fishing, boat rentals, dolphin watching, and playing golf at the area's challenging courses.

Surrounded by miles on end of uninhabited lands and pristine water, Marco Island FL is home to numerous parks and wildlife refuges. Not far from the exquisite boutiques in Naples downtown district, Marco Island is also near some of Florida's best shopping.

For those who are tired of sitting inside and long for days filled with warm sunshine, now is the perfect time to plan a Marco Island vacation. Lots of information including finding a Marco Island resort like the Marco Island Marriott or Marco Island Hilton, quaint Marco Island lodging like the Marco Island Lakeside Inn, or the mark of Marco Island luxury at the Sundial Beach Resort is available by calling 1.866.807.5252 or visiting <http://www.MarcoHotelExperts.com>.
