With thousands of bowlers and their families coming to the Poconos for the huge annual state bowling tournament, they will need a place to turn for hotel rooms, restaurant suggestions, and insider advice about the best activities and sightseeing in the region.

PR9.NET April 04, 2007 - Pocono Mountains PA – The Pennsylvania State Bowling Association Championship Tournament has begun in the Pocono Mountains and will run through June 24. With thousands of bowlers and their families coming through this area from all over the state, PoconosBest, the area's premier travel planning guide is looking forward to recommending hotels, restaurants, and activities for travelers.

Rooms are still available and the springtime is a wonderful time of year to visit the scenic Pocono Mountains so participating bowlers and spectators who want to make a vacation out of their trip should plan early to ensure the best rates. PoconosBest can recommend a hotel or resort that will perfectly fit each bowler's budget and lifestyle. There are so many activities to do in the spring like horseback riding, whitewater rafting, fishing, hiking, shopping, and sightseeing, it's worth extending the trip to include some vacation fun.

Bowlers coming to the Poconos for the Pennsylvania State Bowling Association Championship Tournament can make reservations for Poconos hotels as well as find more information about Poconos activities by calling 1-800-805-3559.
