The summer months are the perfect time for overworked executives to find the best prices on first-rate all-inclusive resorts in breathtakingly beautiful, tropical Punta Cana, Dominican Republic.

PR9.NET April 13, 2007 - Punta Cana, DR - When the daily grind of working has become overbearing, there is a place where beaches are fringed with coconut palms, where you are welcomed with a cool towel and a refreshing tropical drink – this place is Punta Cana, Dominican Republic.

Punta Cana, located on the second largest island in the Caribbean, boasts nearly 40 all-inclusive resorts and 25 miles of expansive sun-swept beaches. The warm breezes and palate-delighting cuisine will carry overworked executives away from the cares of the world. Finding the right resort can be a challenge because of the incredible amount of information to sift through and the language barrier that sometimes exists. The best bet is to contact a travel agent or tour operator to help choose the right property as there are major differences.

Buffets are omnipresent in Punta Cana but each resort also has at least a couple of sit-down restaurants. Most include a casual option on or near the beach and a few even have a fine dining option. Organized daytime activities like beach volleyball and nightly shows are standard. On-site amenities vary and may include a game room, golf course, on-site water sports, casino, fitness center, and spa. Motorized boats generally cost extra, while kayaks, sailboats, and paddle boats as well as snorkeling and windsurfing equipment are typically free of charge.

Golf packages for nearby courses are available including the famous Teeth of the Dog course in La Romana. Other off-property excursions are also available and include whale watching by boat, swimming with the dolphins, horseback riding, booze cruising, jungle safaris, and so much more.

Guests seeking the ultimate in luxury must check out the five-star, adults-only all-inclusive Secrets Excellence Resort, one of the most upscale resorts in the Caribbean, which has been recognized worldwide for its standards of excellence. The resort boasts nightly turndown service complete with a chocolate truffle, suites with romantic four poster canopy beds, in-room Jacuzzis for two, bathrobes, and a mini-bar stocked with premium items. There are countless options and special little romantic touches for those seeking to indulge like private dinners on the beach while being serenaded and 24-hour concierge service.

Grand Paradise Bavaro located toward the northernmost point of Punta Cana is a great property for those traveling with children. There is a natural pond on site where guests can watch fish, turtles, and ducks wading in the water. There is also a piano bar, brightly colored ocean-view buildings, some shopping, a small slot machine room, several bars, and an open-air restaurant with excellent service.

The Occidental Grand Flamenco boasts the most scrumptious all-you-can eat restaurants. Barcelo Bavaro Golf Resort is quite a large property highlighted by beautiful landscape and a well-groomed, challenging golf course. Sunscape the Beach is smaller than some of the other resorts, but has a cozy feel with its thatch-roofed cabanas dotting the shoreline. And they serve the most delightful chocolate chip cookies.

The best prices for Punta Cana travel can be found during the summer months.
