A Divine-Occasion has been selected as a Premier Orange County (CA) and Los Angeles Wedding Coordinator Partner for Ceremony Magazine, the ultimate bridal resource. This partnership includes a Divine-Occasion's participation in upcoming 'The Wedding Studio' bridal event on June 10, 2007.

PR9.NET April 27, 2007 - Huntington Beach, California – A Divine-Occasion, a leading Wedding Planning and Coordinating Company has been selected as one of the Wedding Coordinator Partners for Ceremony Magazine. As a result of this partnership, a Divine-Occasion would also participate in upcoming event 'The Wedding Studio', bridal event on June 10, 2007 in Newport Beach, CA.

Kathy Nosek, owner of a Divine-Occasion, is a Southern California based wedding planner. She travels to plan clients' weddings from Newport Beach to New York City and from Malibu (CA) to Naples (FL), Park City (UT) and beyond. She welcomes the opportunity to make each wedding day distinctive for the couple and their guests. She organizes each and every detail to ensure that the special occasion is truly divine! And she's excited about this new partnership:

"I think that Ceremony Magazine is a tremendous one-stop shopping resource for brides and a great resource guide for event managers of exclusive resorts and properties" says Kathy. "It's the place to find all the top wedding planners and wedding vendors, and we're thrilled and excited to be considered for membership in this elite group."

Kathy's 'a Divine-Occasion' has been in the news through many publications and TV shows. To name a few, Kathy's weddings have been featured in national wedding publications and her work has twice been featured on ABC's Good Morning America, she also judged a "Wedding Cake Throwdown" on the Food Network, as a part of Bobby Flay's Throwdown challenge TV Show. The Fall 2006 issue of Inside Weddings, featured the Katherine Worden & John Shepherd Wedding in The Highlands, North Carolina, a wedding that Inside Weddings called, Mountain High. A Divine-Occasion coordinated the entire event, even guiding it through unexpected rainstorms and wind to deliver a wedding the couple dreamed of having for their friends and family.
