PR9.NET May 03, 2007 - Cary, North Carolina (NC): Hendrick Chevrolet, the Chevrolet dealer in Cary, North Carolina (NC) welcomes the refreshed truck model 2007 Chevrolet Avalanche.

The completely redesigned Chevrolet Avalanche 2007 gives the feel of an SUV despite being a four door pick up truck. Firm, modernized body, a tuned suspension and a basic warranty of 36 months/36,000 miles are the major attractions for the model year 2007.

The Chevy Avalanche 2007 is equipped with a standard 5.3L V8 engine and a 4-speed automatic transmission that is designed for outstanding performance. Avalanche can tow up to 8,000 pounds when fully equipped.

Regardless of its grand size, the Avalanche is lively on the road. Long with comfortable interiors, Ultrasonic Rear Parking Assist system with sensors, and power sunroof with tinted glass make this Avalanche so appealing.

Some of the features include halogen fog lamps, a black luggage rack with side rails, a console, cruise control, remote keyless entry, a tilt-wheel adjustable steering column, steering wheel-mounted controls, visors and power windows.

Anti-lock brake system (ABS), LATCH (Lower Anchors and Top tethers for Children) system, StabilTrak, Driver Information Center (DIC), Head-Curtain Side-Impact Air Bags, Passenger Sensing System and GM's On Star system are the safety measures included in the Avalanche 2007.

Hendrick Chevrolet Cary, NC provides its dealership services in places like Cary, Chapel Hill, Apex, Triangle, Wilson, Fayetteville, Charlotte, Concord, Greensboro, Morrisville, Graham, Wake Forest and more.
