PR9.NET May 24, 2007 - Toronto, Canada – Voices.com, the #1 voice over marketplace, is teaming up with top Canadian voice over coach Debbie Munro to present Debbie's Mic & Me Workshop, a two-day intensive voice over education that covers vocal technique and the business of voice over itself. The Voice Workout gets students behind the microphone using professional equipment, taking direction from one of the top instructors in North America. Using her knowledge and passion for the industry, Deb Munro will direct participants through their scripts, pushing them more than thought possible, regardless of a student's level. Debbie will also share tips on how to help develop strong professionals and introduce practical tools to use over and over. Staying on top with the current trends is easy when you are in the know with Debbie Munro.

The Voice Biz is a unique one-day workshop that will teach participants everything they need to know about the Business of the Biz, including topics such as marketing, equipment, microphones, studios, software, demos, websites, unions, branding, resources to find work, agents, how to start a voice over business, recording options and so much more. Students will leave with a 40-page handbook that they can take home to hone their craft.

There are options to either attend on a per day basis or to register for both days of the Mic & Me Workshops. To sign up on a per day basis, the cost is CDN$212.00 and the fee for both days is CDN$375.00.
