Be Laugh-Friendly and Change the World!

PR9.NET May 31, 2007 - Washington, DC - In their continuing crusade to make the world friendlier, the eeMOMS gladly announce the two most recent recipients of the Laugh-Friendly Award. Barbara A. Feinblatt was honored with the award in February, and Children's Medical Associates of Northern Virginia, P.C. (CMA) won in April.

Elizabeth Sills and Elena Patrice, the creative-junkie sisters behind eeMOMS, developed the Laugh-Friendly Awards to celebrate individuals and establishments that embody the good old-fashioned customer service with a smile that seems all too rare these days. Nominations are open to the public at www.eeMOMS.com.

Feinblatt, February's winner, is the Assistant to the Chairman and CEO of Republic Services, Inc. of Fort Lauderdale, FL. The eeMOMS cite her "extraordinary" customer service, positive attitude, and clever knock-knock jokes as ingredients that made her a shoe-in for the award.

The physicians, nurses, and staff of CMA, located in Fairfax, VA, were recognized in April for their superior, respectful healthcare services. Sills and Patrice believe parents especially appreciate the practice for the comfort, understanding, and organization each member of its staff offers. The eeMOMS feel that CMA deserves the award most of all for never making moms feel silly or rushed when they have questions or concerns about their children's well-being.
