

Off Broadway Kids to Perform at Walt Disney World Resort

Travel Adventures, August 14, 2007

URL: <http://www.pr9.net/ent/education/5744august.html>

Off Broadway Kids theater troupe is performing at the National Performing Arts Festival at Walt Disney World on February 16-18. The festival features some of the nation's top high school and middle school acting troupes performing selections for a panel of professional adjudicators.

PR9.NET August 14, 2007 - Lake Buena Vista, FL - Off Broadway Kids theater troupe is performing at the National Performing Arts Festival at Walt Disney World on February 16-18. The festival features some of the nation's top high school and middle school acting troupes performing selections for a panel of professional adjudicators. A special awards ceremony will follow the performances and the highest scoring troupe will perform live on the Future World West stage at Epcot®.

During the festival each theater troupe will attend a private, interactive feedback clinic and the student actors will participate in educational seminars on topics such as audition techniques, stage movement, and vocal training.

Off Broadway Kids are under the direction of Christian Mayer. At the 2005 festival in Florida they were the Showcase winners for their production "Best of Broadway Revue", and during the 2006 festival in New York they received the prestigious Judges Award for "Aladdin." During this festival they will be presenting "Godspell Jr."

Travel Adventures of Lapeer, Michigan is the exclusive travel provider and event organizer for the National Performing Arts Festival.

###

About Travel Adventures

Travel Adventures is staffed by educators who understand the needs of teachers. We've been creating unique and educational student travel experiences since 1987, serving over one half million students since our inception. We provide hassle-free travel arrangements while empowering teachers to create change by expanding the classroom to the world. Our experienced team of travel professionals is dedicated to exceeding your student travel expectations.

Phone: 800-356-2737
Website: <http://www.traveladventures.com>
E-Mail: mktg@traveladventures.com
Address: 1175 S Lapeer Road
Lapeer, MI 48446