In first 6 months of 2007, nearly 1,000 new partners join Comodo

PR9.NET June 21, 2007 - Jersey City, NJ - Comodo, a global Certification Authority and leading provider of Identity and Trust Assurance Management solutions, today reported that since January of this year, nearly 1,000 resellers and affiliates have been added to its partner network as Comodo's SSL certificate services and authentication solutions continue to become recognized globally.

Comodo's newly-developed APIs and zero touch affiliate systems allow resellers to align Comodo SSL certificate and authentication solutions within their product portfolio seamlessly. With a wide variety of price points and branding options available, Comodo partners benefit from product depth and optimum margins.

Other features of Comodo's partner programs include:

- * Branding Options: In addition to offering solutions from a globally recognized brand, Comodo partners have access to white labelling and co-branding opportunities spanning SSL certificates, desktop security applications and vulnerability scanning services.
- * Ease of administration. Comodo's multiple reseller platforms and intelligent APIs ensure that the deployment and lifecycle management of SSL certificates is easy.
- * Pricing. Comodo's SSL certificate and authentication solutions are priced competitively to ensure that its solutions meet the budget requirements of organizations of all types while ensuring healthy margins for Comodo partners.
- * Diverse Product Portfolio. Comodo offers the widest portfolio of SSL and authentication solutions, including TrustLogos, new industry standard Extended Validation (EV) SSL certificates, HackerGuardian PCI compliancy scanning services and many other online trust-enabling technologies
- * Solid customer support. Comodo's industry leading technical support continues to set standards in customer service.

"A key cornerstone of our partner success has been our newly-developed affiliate system that is designed to sell all Comodo products with zero integration," explained James Langman, VP Business Development for Comodo. "We can support a broader range of partners with a greater suite of products, enabling them to be up and running within an extremely quick time frame."
