PR9.NET June 28, 2007 - Birmingham, MI - Michigan Entrepreneur Television: Celebrates 60th Television Program.

Michigan Entrepreneur TV is a weekly television talk show featuring entrepreneurs, executives and business leaders of some of Michigan's most successful companies and organizations.

Created, hosted and produced by Tara Kachaturoff, this program brings recognition and visibility to companies which are creating opportunity and promise for the state of Michigan.

"I've enjoyed every minute of producing and hosting Michigan Entrepreneur," says Kachaturoff. It's always been a goal of mine to have my own television talk show and it's a great feeling to finally realize it. Our team includes Ron Keller, floor manager and cameras, Robert L. Karvonen, cameras and technical assistance, Steve Rota, director, and Leslie Helwig, executive producer. We debuted last April 2006 and in that short time, we've produced 60 programs. It's been a wonderful collaborative effort."

"Michigan is brimming with top talent. We have a history of incredible leaders who have created companies and organizations which have transformed not only Michigan and our nation, but the world. Sharing the stories of entrepreneurs with our community is what it's all about. We hope to create more awareness of Michigan business and help people and businesses connect with each other to build, maintain, and sustain a strong Michigan economy," says Kachaturoff.

Michigan Entrepreneur's 60th program included special guest, Joel Welsh, Chief Community Officer of StartupNation.com.

StartupNation is a free service for entrepreneurs -- founded by entrepreneurs for entrepreneurs. Started by two of the nation's top entrepreneurial experts, Rich and Jeff Sloan, they've created the "one-stop shop for entrepreneurial success." Brimming with free resources including articles, blogs, podcasts, on-demand seminars and more, StartupNation is the best place to learn what it takes to start and grow a business. In this must-see interview, Tara Kachaturoff interviews Joel Welsh about the exciting offerings at StartupNation including some upcoming events that promise great fun and opportunity for all.
