iHOUSE Web Solutions releases a new-and-improved corporate website to emphasize its wide-ranging product line. The new site features additional pages as well as improved navigation and ease of use.

PR9.NET June 27, 2007 - OAKLAND, CA - iHOUSE Web Solutions is pleased to announce the public release of their new company website, which displays the company's suite of online marketing solutions for real estate professionals in a new light.

This new website will make it easier than ever get information on real estate marketing tools or to test drive any of the products in iHOUSE Web Solution's powerful arsenal. Additional pages have been added to highlight the monthly winner of iHOUSE Web Solution's Customer Close Up Contest. "Beginning with the launch of the new marketing site, we will showcase one iHOUSE customer per month who has made their business a success by using the iHOUSE website platform," says Paul Sheng, iHOUSE Web Solutions CEO. "This is just one way for us to say THANKS to our valued customers." To see this month's Customer Close Up, John Ernstrom, visit <http://www.ihouseweb.com/Company/Customers/featuredcustomer.html>.

This new website will also highlight iHOUSE's Customer Care Program. In addition to Customer Support, which is available free of charge to iHOUSE customers 7-days a week, new iHOUSE customers are assigned a highly trained Customer Care Representative to walk them through the features of their site. "We know that real estate technology is always changing," says Sheng, "so we developed the Customer Care Program to help with everything from editing website content to search engine optimization." To read more about the iHOUSE Customer Care program, visit <http://www.ihouseweb.com/Company/support/customercare.html>.

The goal of the iHOUSE Web Solutions website redesign is to create an interface that makes it easier for new visitors and existing iHOUSE customers to find the real estate marketing tools they're looking for.
