WFMR's classical music lovers can fill the void by listening to WCPE via the Internet at TheClassicalStation.org/listen.shtml.

PR9.NET June 28, 2007 - WAKE FOREST, N.C. — General Manager Deborah S. Proctor of WCPE, The ClassicalStation.org, expresses regret at the format change of WFMR-FM in the Milwaukee area. However, WFMR's classical music lovers can fill the void by listening to WCPE via the Internet at TheClassicalStation.org/listen.shtml.

"Great Classical Music should not be lost to this country," says Proctor. "WCPE is dedicated to assuring that Great Classical Music lives on and is always accessible."

WCPE's broadcast can be accessed across the U.S. in several ways: on-line streaming in multiple formats, including IPv6, local cable television systems and traditional radio broadcasting.

Without additional royalties or obligations other local stations can retransmit WCPE. Many Public Radio, High School and College stations across the country retransmit WCPE to supplement their local programming. Detailed instructions on how to retransmit WCPE can be found at TheClassicalStation.org/rebroadcast_consent.shtml.

WCPE wants everyone to be able to listen to Great Classical Music 24/7 and is committed to making the best available around the world. For more information about WCPE visit TheClassicalStation.org or call 1-800-556-5178.

About WCPE Radio

With a 30-year history, WCPE is a non-commercial, 100 percent listener-supported, independent station dedicated to excellence in Great Classical Music, 24 Hours A Day. Community-minded business underwriters and foundations are among the 150,000 listeners in the North Carolina broadcast area. Other radio stations and cable television systems can rebroadcast Great Classical Music, 24 Hours A Day. WCPE is one of the first public broadcasters to stream on the Internet. WCPE is heard worldwide on the Internet in multiple formats, including the next generation IPv6. Because WCPE receives no tax-derived support, the station conducts two on-air fundraising campaigns and two major mail-out campaigns per year to raise needed operating funds. Quarter Notes, the WCPE Program Guide, is published four times a year as a means to enhance appreciation and understanding of classical music.
