For over twenty years The Entrepreneur's Source has been the premier source for self-employment options, franchising information, education and training. The Entrepreneur's Source is the first place to look for guidance, training, and straight talk about franchise and business opportunities, with no obligation or risk.

PR9.NET July 05, 2007 - Southbury, CT - The Entrepreneur's Source announces its continuing expansion throughout North America with nine new offices opening in eight states and another office opening in Ontario, Canada during the month of June. TES is North America's leading career and business coaching company with more than 250 offices in the United States and Canada.

TES offers a full-range of services to aspiring business owners and to small-to-medium size companies looking to increase performance.

"The market is ripe for business-savvy people to apply their experience to business ownership," says Terry Powell, CEO of TES. "And TES business coaching attracts the business oriented individual who wants to continue to use their experience and work with people and small businesses as an E-Source Coach," he added.

TES, along with its sister company, Business Advisers International, dominates the business coaching/consulting market with a 33% market share.

About The Entrepreneur's Source (TES)

The Entrepreneur's Source was founded by Terry Powell, our CEO. He recognized the fact that 70 percent of the population has a strong desire to be self-sufficient, but only a small number actually find a way to make it happen. Too many people give up on their dreams too soon, when education and guidance could show them the way to success.
