The Herald-Sun Readers Recognize WCPE as one of the Best Radio Stations

PR9.NET July 19, 2007 - WAKE FOREST, N.C. - TheClassicalStation.org announces today that WCPE is the second place winner in the Best Radio Station Category of the Annual "Herald-Sun Reader's Choice Awards." The 2007 winners were published in the Sunday, June 8, Herald-Sun supplement.

"I am greatly honored that Durham area residents recognize WCPE's efforts in providing Great Classical Music and excellent radio programming," says WCPE General Manager Deborah S. Proctor.

Readers of the Herald-Sun were provided the opportunity to share their opinions about who is the area's best in more than 100 categories.

WCPE is a non-commercial, 100 percent listener-supported, independent station dedicated to excellence in Great Classical Music broadcasting. WCPE can be heard at 89.7 FM across central North Carolina and Southside Virginia. In addition, WCPE can be heard worldwide, 24/7, via the Web in multiple streaming formats, including the next generation IPv6. Visit TheClassicalsStation.org/internet.shtml to begin listening online.

About WCPE Radio

With a 30-year history, WCPE is a non-commercial, 100 percent listener-supported, independent station dedicated to excellence in Great Classical Music, 24 Hours A Day. Community-minded business underwriters and foundations are among the 150,000 listeners in the North Carolina broadcast area. Other radio stations and cable television systems can rebroadcast Great Classical Music, 24 Hours A Day. WCPE is one of the first public broadcasters to stream on the Internet. WCPE is heard worldwide on the Internet in multiple formats, including the next generation IPv6. Because WCPE receives no tax-derived support, the station conducts two on-air fundraising campaigns and two major mail-out campaigns per year to raise needed operating funds. Quarter Notes, the WCPE Program Guide, is published four times a year as a means to enhance appreciation and understanding of classical music.
