PR9.NET July 31, 2007 - New Delhi – Intaglio Solutions a Redhat Certified Training Partner has launched its boot camp training center in India, providing world class training at New Delhi and Shimla. This is the most cost effective or cheap boot camp training in India with excellent infrastructure and comprehensive courses.

Mohit Antil the CEO of Intaglio Solutions says " The aim of launching a boot camp training in India is to provide a renowned training on various certifications like RHCE, MCSE , CCNA and other boot camp trainings to the world. Besides, providing the training we want to provide a holiday experience to our customer which makes the training more interesting that too at a competitive price."

There are various boot camp training providers in India. However, none of them matches the quality of intaglio solutions. Intaglio has most well equipped training labs for practical knowledge. Intaglio provides stay at mesmerizing valley of Shimla or capital city Delhi besides that intaglio also provides various facilities of meals, travel and Janitor. Intaglio Solutions makes sure that you get guaranteed results for your training with the perfect holiday experience.

Intaglio is the only training provider in the world where all Boot camps are guaranteed to run even if there is only one registration. We never cancel a boot camp on the last day due to insufficient registrations. Thus your schedule never gets disrupted and you will get the certifications that you planned for.

Intaglio Solutions provides best boot camp training for Cisco, Microsoft, Redhat, Checkpoint and other certifications at the most reasonable price which would help people seeking expertise in networking to carve out there real skills. Intaglio Solutions also provides the most comprehensive list of courses and certifications ranging from RHCE, MCSE, MCSA, CCNA, CCNP, Security, Checkpoint, A+, Network+ and so on.

At any point of time we have over 20 IT professionals from all over the world. You get an opportunity to network with them, share experience and best practices and carry back with you some very useful contacts.
