Recently launched, SimplyTranslate.net provides affordable, reliable and on time English to Malay or Malay to English translation services.

PR9.NET August 28, 2007 - Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia - SimplyTranslate.net, a new English to Malay or Malay to English translation service provider is the first to offer a sliding scale pricing. Starting from USD 0.03 per word, for 5,000 words with the turn around time of 6 days and USD 0.08 per word, for 2,000 words within 24 hours.

Its facilitator, Ihsan Bahri a.k.a Deen says, "My colleagues and I have made sure that our clients can get the most affordable, reliable and on time translation services."

"We offer this sliding scale pricing because we want to accommodate all types of clients. Those who wants affordable translation services and those who are pressed for time," says Deen.

"When I needed professional English to BM translation for my book, I didn't know what to do. I'm glad that I eventually found Ihsan. His translation services are accurate and affordable," says Gobala Krishnan, an e-commerce entrepreneur and professional blogger, who has used the service.

Gobala commented further, "He is also extremely professional and has never missed a deadline. I strongly recommend Ihsan's translation services for those who want to sleep in peace knowing that their project is in the right hands."

In conjunction with Malaysia's 50th Independence year, SimplyTranslate.net is offering 50% off on any of its translation services.

"Because its our country's 50th Independence year or what we Malaysians called Merdeka, my colleagues and I agreed to give 50% off on any of our translation services until the end of this year, 31st December. Just use this promotion code MER50THNPR9 when asked," says Deen.
