Ability Developed Center organizes painting exhibition at Al-Wahda Mall.

PR9.NET September 09, 2007 - Abu Dhabi, UAE – An art exhibition benefiting The Ability Developed Centre (ADC) will take place at Al Wahda Mall from September 9 for a whole month. The event will feature paintings and other artwork that has been created by special needs children at the ADC, as well as some of the capital's leading UAE and expatriate artists who are donating proceeds from the sale to centre.

Supporting The Ability Developed Center (ABA) are Framers, Pioneer Digital Studios, and Grafika, McDonalds and Costa Coffee, all retailers at the mall who have donated services to make the exhibition possible, as well as BrandMoxie, a leading advertising agency in Abu Dhabi who provided marketing support.

The exhibition will feature various art mediums, and artistic styles, and all the artwork will be available for sale.

Some entertainment has been organized around the event, including an appearance by Ronald McDonald, the clown, and Dabdoob, a well known local personality in children's entertainment.

Also supporting the cause are students who have been invited to attend the exhibition from numerous schools in Abu Dhabi.

The exhibition will run from September 9 for a whole month.
