Global Solutions Investor Relations Launches New Investor Relations, Public Relations Service for Global Public Companies Listed on Foreign and North American Stock Exchanges

PR9.NET September 14, 2007 - Delta B.C. - Global Solutions Investor Relations (www.globalsolutionsinvestorrelations.com), a leading global investor relations and public relations firm announces the launch of the new website and service for global public companies.

Global Solutions Investor Relations was created to assist global public companies in creating an Investor Relations and Media Relations program to effectively communicate the corporate message to the investment and media community.

It has truly become a small world after all, with the global online community accessing and researching public markets on a growing basis. From investing in India, China, Russia, Australia, Middle East to North America, the basic needs of both public companies and investors are similar: disclosure and effective communication and research tools.

Global Solutions Investor Relations aims to provide public companies with a global communications program that will include all venues and platforms from online, to audio, to news releases, road shows, conference calls and trade shows.
