PR9.NET October 08, 2007 - Pomona, California - Soloscript.com, is the thoughtful and unique venture of Hiratech Software Solutions PVT LTD which has its head office in Pomona, California. Soloscript.com is basically a tutorial website storing informative and useful scripts in various categories namely ASP, ASP.Net, XML, JavaScript, C and C++, CFML, Flash, Database, Remote Hosting, Shipping Implementation and Payment Gateway. This is what the CEO of Hiratech Software Solutions, MR T S Anand has commented on the sites innumerable features, "There is an arrangement of highly rated and popular scripts that are essentially programming scripts. Programmers who want to develop their websites in a better way and those who want to clear their doubts on programming aspects can visit Soloscript.com."

Basically these scripts serve as tutorials that help programmers and students in understanding the essential characteristics about a particular tool and its functions that are well arranged categorically. The free scripts include useful programming information of ASP, ASP.Net, C and C++, XML, CFML, Database, shipping implementation and payment gateway. The website features best tutorials of ASP.net, C#, ASP, Perl, PHP, Java script, C & C++, Ajax Tutorials, J2ee, J2Me, Java, Python & Ruby Rail, Ecommerce and many more other important topics. The tutorial section is one such category where browsers can get additional information on the above mentioned topics. A special category based on interview questions is introduced that help young aspirants to face job interviews with confidence as this section prepares them with expected questions mostly asked during interviews.

The Index page provides direct access to Asp.net, ASP, Flash, Java Script and XML scripts. The ASP.net scripts include scripts on Ad Management, Auctions, Blog scripts, Calculators, Calendars, Classified Ads, Communication Tools, Content Management, Customer Support, Database Tools, Development Tools, Discussion Boards and E-Commerce Scripts. Similarly the Flash scripts are very enlightening for young learners in the IT field. There are scripts on Action, Animation, Backend, Buttons, Effects, Introduction to Flash Scripts, Miscellaneous Scripts in Flash and Navigation Scripts in Flash.
