Popular Key Note Speaker And Seminar Leader Roy Lantz Introduces His Book Titled "Don't Beat The Boss At Horseshoes".

PR9.NET October 12, 2007 - Marietta, GA - A wonderful gift and accessory for National Bosses Day which is October 16th, Roy Lantz has published "Never Beat The Boss At Horseshoes..102 Ways To Pitch Ringer After Ringer In The Game Of Life." Featuring quotes from Aristotle to Mae West along with Lantz giving his unique and positive perspective on life. "It's about recognizing life is a game, and that it's a whole lot more fun when you're winning" states Roy Lantz.

The book consists of 10 chapters of several short stories; every story begins with a powerful quotation which is illustrated by an engaging vignette. The vignette may be historical or biographical or whimsical or humorous. In all cases the goal of each page is the same as the goal of throwing a ringer in the game of horseshoes, to make you feel better than you did before you experienced it, to make you want to experience another and to win the game – in this case, the game of life. This book will help you to approach the game of life from a whole new perspective and discover the incredible power of the Law of Attraction in winning.

Brian Tracy, Author, Change Your Thinking – Change Your Life says "This is a fast-moving, enjoyable, entertaining book, full of great ideas and insights you can use immediately to improve your life!" This book is based on proven principles for winning in that most complex of games – the game of life. Let it help you win and have fun doing it.
