PR9.NET October 13, 2007 - Ahmedabad, India - Deepavali is one of the most important festivals of India. Diwali or 'festival of lights' is celebrated with much enthusiasm and zeal in all over India. In fact the festival of Diwali is regarded to bring the supernatural joy and brightness in everyone's life with the hope of discovering light amidst darkness, achieving happiness in place of ignorance and spreading of love amidst hatred and violence.

Diwali is a festival where people from all age groups participate. They give expression to their happiness by lighting 'diyas', decorating houses, bursting firecrackers and inviting near and dear ones to their households for partaking in a sumptuous feast. The tradition of lighting the diyas on Diwali holds much importance as in Hindu mythology the light signifies goodness and vitality. In cities candles and fashionable neon lights often substitute these diyas.
