Denver Honda Dealer Offers Great Selection and Availability of Honda CRVs Combined with Professional Customer Service.

PR9.NET October 19, 2007 - Denver, CO - Mile High Honda today announced its continued offering of a wide selection of new and used Honda CR-Vs. Mile High Honda located in Denver on South Havana is an established Denver Honda dealer of more than 20 years serving the Denver metro and Colorado Front range areas. Mile High Honda's inventory of Honda CR-Vs includes a broad selection of new and pre-owned vehicles. Prospective Honda CR-V buyers are invited to visit Mile High Honda to test drive a Honda CR-V of their choice.

The CR-V is Honda's compact SUV that was redesigned for 2007, featuring new exterior styling that trades the trademark rear-mounted spare tire and side-hinged rear door for a rear liftgate. The CR-V originally debuted in the U.S. in 1997, built on the Civic platform, and quickly became the best-selling compact SUV. After getting redesigned for 2007, the 2008 Honda CR-V adds more features to the EX-L including a new dual-zone automatic climate control system, a driver's seat with eight-way power adjustment, power lumbar support and a premium audio system. Interested customers may contact Mile High Honda for additional information.

Mile High Honda combines the availability of the Honda CR-V and other cars and trucks with its excellent service and full Honda dealer support. The Denver Honda dealer is open Monday through Saturday. Additional information about Mile High Honda and its inventory of Honda CR-Vs is available at the website listed below.
