Partnering with Clickbank, Voices.com, esteemed publisher of voice over content and resources for voice actors, provides partners with opportunities to make money selling digital products, specifically, downloadable ebooks.

PR9.NET October 31, 2007 - Toronto, Canada – Voices.com, the industry leading voice over marketplace, is no stranger to seizing the moment and creating effective solutions that benefit not only the company as a whole but their customers as well. One such step was taken this past week when the corporation signed on with Clickbank, the Internet's premier retailer for digitally delivered products, enabling the sales of the Voices.com voice over ebooks to be wholly managed and made available to affiliates.

Education has always been a focal point for Voices.com. The very concept of education, acquiring practical skills and developing artistic talent before jumping into the field of voice acting is quickly gaining momentum much in part to key players in voice over training, authors of voice acting books and participating experts on podcasts such as "Voice Over Experts".

Becoming an affiliate of Voices.com at Clickbank is an opportunity not to be missed considering the booming voice over industry and cast of thousands who search everyday for ways to become a voice actor and get started in voice overs. Sectors of the voice over industry are ballooning at an incredible rate, including the need for audio book recordings and online voice overs. Voices.com has launched their Clickbank experience starting with "The Definitive Guide to Voice Over Success", adding more from their extensive product line in the months to come.

Voices.com Vice President of Marketing and author, Stephanie Ciccarelli, says, "We're proud to be at the forefront of this educational effort and welcome the support of affiliates from the entertainment industry and beyond. Voice over is not just about talking into a microphone. That being said, it is of vital importance that voice acting ebooks are promoted. We're thrilled to be working with Clickbank to get the word out there, joining forces with their network of affiliates."

Affiliates who market the Voices.com product line enjoy a 50% commission on each ebook they sell. All one needs to do is visit Clickbank, sign up as an affiliate and search for Voices.com, adding the products to their website to start making money online, capitalizing on a booming market while aligning themselves with quality products.
