The heat is on...Literally! Or at least that's what some are claiming. In the course of the past few years, climate change has become a hot topic and interest has increased greatly. Yet not everyone can agree on just exactly what to do about it or its effects on the environment.

PR9.NET November 05, 2007 - Tampa, FL. - This is your chance to voice your opinion regarding critical environmental issues facing every American today. 9Seconds, a Florida integrated marketing firm, is conducting extensive market research to determine public sentiment regarding environmental issues within the United States.

- Each person that completes the survey is automatically entered into a drawing for a chance to win $100.
- The survey is open to US residents only.
- Respondents must be over the age of 18.
- The survey will be closed on November 17, 2007.

Completing the survey takes approximately 10 minutes. Not only can you let your voice be heard but you can help contribute to a healthier environment for years to come.

Click here: <http://survey.constantcontact.com/survey/a07e26ri3ccf8duty28/start> to view the survey online or send an email to info@9seconds.com to request a personal invitation.

Stand up and be counted! Let others know where you stand on environmental issues faced by everyone on this planet in which we live. Let your voice be heard and tell others what you plan to do to help ensure the life of our earth for generations to come.
