

The Music Business Coaching Club

Platinum Millennium Publishing, November 07, 2007

URL: <http://www.pr9.net/ent/music/6719november.html>

Introducing: The Music Business Coaching Club, a great way for neophytes in the music business to quickly learn all they need to know.

PR9.NET November 07, 2007 - Raleigh, North Carolina - Ty Cohen, C.E.O. of Platinum Millennium Publishing and Ernie Singleton, former president of MCA Records are teaming up to bring you The Music Business Coaching Club. For more information on this program visit <http://musicbusinesscoachingclub.com/> today!

So, what is the Music Business Coaching Club and what can it do for me, you ask? First off, this is a once in a lifetime opportunity to work with and learn from several successful music industry gurus!

It is a fact that the majority of your music industry success stories started off with a mentor. What this coaching club will provide is six weeks of 100% total access to Ty Cohen and Ernie Singleton. You will also receive a step-by-step tailored plan, access to top level names and contacts, access to Ty and Ernie's Industry Round Table and much more.

Right now, membership to a club that is easily worth thousands is being offered for a mere $797! If you are ready to learn about distribution, promotion, radio and retail, marketing and publicity, artist development and developing a solid infrastructure then this is the Music Industry Club you have been looking for. Remember, there is a 100% money back guarantee if you are not satisfied!

For More Info: <http://musicbusinesscoachingclub.com/>

Ty Cohen, the online music industry's most recognizable voice is the former owner of a successful independent record label, current owner of Platinum Millennium publishing and nation-wide music industry seminar speaker and panelist. He is also the author and creator of over 40 best-selling music business books, reports, courses, audio products and other music industry "How to" resources, that have helped tens of thousands of individuals like you to successfully find their way in the music business.

###

About Platinum Millennium Publishing

We are the company behind the Music Business Coaching Club, a great way for neophytes in the music business to quickly learn all they need to know.