NewLevelOpportunities announces the launch of their new website with a list of recommended online books and proven income development and self improvement programs. These self improvement books and programs cover a wide range of topics including money-making, strengthening marriage relationships, mutual fund investment, budgeting, diet and exercise, and parenting.

PR9.NET November 27, 2007 - Brookville, Indiana - Newlevelopportunities.com conducts training programs on various areas of self growth. These programs help improve personal and business knowledge.

"It's fairly simple. You take each individual area of your life and make it the best it can be. You set goals for each area. You develop easy to follow plans for each area. You diligently work the plan for each area. And finally, you put all these areas together. Do this and you will find the life of your dreams. We'll show you how" says Rodney Grubbs, Online business entrepreneur, mentor and the founder of www.NewLevelOpportunities.com

In explaining the significance of newlevelopportunities.com, Rodney further remarked, "We are working hard to develop a one-stop website that will help you in almost any area of your life. Whether you need some help with your job, some advice on making money or a bit of guidance in your marriage, NewLevelOpportunities.com will be sure to help. New Level Opportunities will be just as the name implies -- an opportunity / advice / suggestion website that will help you move up a notch in almost any area of life."

Currently, Rodney Grubbs is working on two special projects. Project number one is a free program designed to help a couple to develop a cordial marriage relationship. Project number two is to help people in almost any area of life -HEALTH, WEALTH, MARRIAGE, and SELF HELP.
