ProfEssays, a US-based custom essay writing company (www.professays.com) would like to inform its customers that it is going to work in enhanced regime during holiday season with special emphasis on emergency essays and custom editing and proofreading.

PR9.NET December 06, 2007 - San Diego, CA - Holiday season happens to coincide with the end of fall semester meaning numerous essays, term papers and projects to hand in, let alone completing some catch-up work. That is why www.ProfEssays.com writers and editors team is working harder than ever to provide students with high-quality and timely work to meet and even exceed their expectations.

As before, ProfEssays emergency writing service, which provides completed essays in eight hours, is up to the mark and ready to assist customers in tough situations. The company has managed to write essays up to twenty pages in this extremely short time frame due to using team writing, which is an innovative practice in custom essays writing field. Naturally, each work undergoes a bi-level plagiarism check through special software and manually to assure full authenticity of the produced essay.

The key to working here is responsibility and the last thing you are expected to do is slacking off Editing and proofreading services, which have been recently introduced at <http://Edit.ProfEssays.com>, have proven to be really popular among customers, therefore during this season the team of editors is strengthened with even more experts to provide this kind of work. The procedure of editing consists of two stages: the first one includes correction of various mistakes (spelling, grammar and stylistic ones) and the second one envisages rewriting of the given piece of corrected text so that it has a smooth flow.

It is the policy of www.ProfEssays.com to work for its customers 24/7/365, and during the holiday season it works even more intensively. The employed writers are committed professionals who are extremely dedicated to their work and willing to take up a challenging assignment any time, be it even Christmas Eve.

"The key to working here is responsibility and the last thing you are expected to do is slacking off," says Kelly McKnight, ProfEssays writer from History department. Moreover, every writer employed in the company is a person with extensive knowledge in his or her particular field and successful experience in custom essay writing.

ProfEssays will do its best to help its customers receive such invaluable Christmas present as academic excellence. The company has more than 300 writers for composing well-researched, original, coherent, and properly referenced duty assignments.

ProfEssays is aware of the trust a student commits in it by resorting to its services and guarantees a complete refund in case plagiarism is noticed in any of its custom essays and term papers. The company also delivers all the pieces of writing on or even before deadlines so that the customers are able to post an inquiry for alterations if any.
