

PunkBabyClothes.net Prepares to Launch New Alternative Baby Apparel Website

PunkBabyClothes.net, December 15, 2007

URL: <http://www.pr9.net/home/hshopping/6953december.html>

PunkBabyClothes.net, a Salt Lake City, Utah based company prepares to launch new website catering to young parents. The site features a product line containing alternative styles of clothing such as punk, gothic, urban and retro as well as featuring funny slogan shirts and pirate themed clothing. These younger parents are seeking individuality in both their own wardrobes as well as those of their children. PunkBabyClothes.net offers an alternative to traditional pastel and cutesy baby fashion found in most local retail stores.

PR9.NET December 15, 2007 - Salt Lake City, Utah - PunkBabyClothes.net has spent the past months fully redesigning their site, shopping cart and adding thousands of products to the site. The scheduled launch date of the site will be held January 3rd, 2008. The Grand Opening even will feature PunkBabyClothes.net's own product line: My Baby Rocks. This line includes hundreds of artistically designed graphics hand printed on to high quality baby, kid and adult wear and accessories. Included in the product offerings are matching mother & baby sets as well as packaged gift sets of coordinating pieces.

The new web store, when launched on January 3rd, 2008, can be found here: <http://www.punkbabyclothes.net>.

PunkBabyClothes.net is a Utah based company, started early in 2006. The lack of options in the punk and alternative baby clothing industry sparked the idea to create a solution. It started out as a small local company, but the interest grew and so did the company. This is the first time PunkBabyClothes.net will be selling merchandise online. For more information please visit: <http://www.punkbabyclothes.net>. Questions or comments can be directed to Dave Wall or Andrea Thornton at admin@punkbabyclothes.net.

###

About PunkBabyClothes.net

My Baby Rocks is a Utah based company, started early in 2006. The lack of options in the punk and alternative baby clothing industry is what initially sparked the idea to create a solution. It started out as a small local company, but the interest grew and so did the company. For more information please visit My Baby Rocks at <http://www.punkbabyclothes.net>. Questions or comments can be directed to Dave Wall or Andrea Thornton at admin@punkbabyclothes.net or by phone at 866-530-3007.

Phone: 866-530-3007
Website: <http://www.punkbabyclothes.net>
E-Mail: admin@punkbabyclothes.net