PR9.NET December 16, 2007 - GAITHERSBURG, MARYLAND – Guitarist Randy Ellefson has released a new hard rock song, "The Key" from his second instrumental guitar album, Some Things Are Better Left Unsaid. The song is available as a free download at http://www.randyellefson.com/TheKey\_RandyEllefson.mp3.

"The Key" was previously available only to fans that joined Ellefson's free Demo Club at his official site, www.randyellefson.com. To continue giving them something extra, the song "Pitter Patter" has also been uploaded into the Demo Club as a free download for club members.

Since the release of his debut album, The Firebard, Ellefson has earned endorsements with Alvarez Guitars, Peavey, and Morley Pedals, and been heard on XM Radio Unsigned 52 and stations in Canada, Australia, and the U.S.
