PR9.NET December 30, 2007 - India - Accountingsecret.com is a first of its kind innovation that connects accountants, owners, bankers, shareholders, from all over the world by providing latest information on accounting that gives anyone the opportunity to truly access on accounting an internet phenomenon assist to gather rich knowledge on key components of accounts.

Over the past decade, accounting websites have placed an increased emphasis on understanding the client's business and how the accounting information across different departments, segments and transaction cycles fits together. The purpose of this website is to provide insight into which factors and features are most important to CPA and taxpayers.

On the eve of launching www.accountingsecret.com, one of the close aide said "This site is dedicated to give you valuable insider secrets revealed by professional Accountants. These accounting secrets range from fundamental accounting principles, balance sheet, debit, credits to financial fiscal reports. A complete description of basic accounting principles is displayed here to overcome your financial troubles. This complete accounting resource is aimed to serve the interest of owners, bankers, shareholders, agencies and governments."

The role of accountancy in expansion is repeatedly taken too lightly. Accountancy provides crucial information for making informed resource allocation decisions, since one can only manage what one can first measure. It is a basic element of the contemporary economy and is often referred to as the language of business. Hence, reliable accounting information about corporate and other economic entities is a significant micro-economic complement to effective macro-economic policies.

Accountingsecret.com also provides latest e-books and software on accounts such as Steve McIntyre-Smith's first book - 'The Succession Planning Toolkit' published by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants and Dynacom SOHO Edition software that enables to manage all daily financial tasks from one screen. Dynacom gives all the accounting functionality, at a fraction of the cost compared to off-the-shelf solutions.
