PR9.NET January 08, 2008 - Carson City, NV – netbusiness.com, Inc. wants to help the QuickBooks* community kick off the New Year right by offering free trial versions of its addQin (formerly QBAutomation) software for download. QuickBooks* users include individuals and businesses such as retailers, accountants, manufacturers, small business owners, virtual assistants, bookkeepers, non-profits, tax accountants, construction companies and everyone else who has their own store on the internet.

addQin offers the following productivity tools for QuickBooks*:

Q-Import - Import transaction data and other items from various sources into QuickBooks. Most common imports are sales receipts, invoices, and checks.

Q-Merchant - Process credit-card and electronic-check payments via QuickBooks and Authorize.Net, PayPal, and others. The payment requests are invoked directly from QuickBooks and transmitted to your payment provider. Magnetic stripe readers are supported.

Q-Email - Easily email invoices, statements, sales receipts and other reports directly from QuickBooks to your customers and vendors. No subscription needed.

Q-Contact - Stay in contact with all the people you are doing business with. Select from QuickBooks email addresses from customers, vendors and employees. Apply various filters. Send emails to customers who bought specific items, and more.

Virtual Payment Terminal - Accept credit card and electronic-check payments via Authorize.Net, PayPal and others. Use barcode readers to identify sales items, use magnetic card readers for credit card processing.

Free trial versions of these exciting software tools can be downloaded from <http://www.addQin.com>.
