ProfEssays, a US-based custom essay writing company (www.professays.com), announces the enhancement of work of its Anti-Plagiarism Department responsible for anti-plagiarism check of custom essays and term papers written by company's writers.

PR9.NET January 17, 2008 - San Diego, CA - Today Anti-Plagiarism Department is one of the main keys of company's success and popularity. Due to the fact that 100% originality and creativity of paper are the main requirements of all ProfEssays customers, company is doing its best to ensure that all custom essays, term papers, reviews etc. are a qualitative product that would correspond to all standards and customer's demands.

www.ProfEssays.com has employed five new IT specialists for its Anti-Plagiarism Department. Company's renewed team will track the latest informational sources and update all existing anti-plagiarism software in order to improve its work and ensure 100% originality of paper. Technological progress never stops, and it's important for ProfEssays to correspond to the latest demands and to be in the know of the best development in the field of plagiarism tracking.

"From now and on all custom essays and term papers completed by company's writers will be double-checked with the newest anti-plagiarism software, provided by our computer specialists," says Steven Brubeck, ProfEssays Vice President.

All essays, regardless their volume and topics, are automatically checked with the help of several anti-plagiarism software programs (Eve2 and MyDropBox among them) and then manually by company's specialists from Expert Team that introduce last changes and corrections. ProfEssays' clients have nothing to worry about, because they do not participate in the whole checking process. They are delivered a first-class high-quality paper with 100% guarantee of originality and creativity. Some customers use to provide company's writers with their own materials. These are used only as an additional and helping base and are in no way copied into papers.

ProfEssays Team is frequently asked if papers they produce will ever be published after they have been sent to customers. With all confidence we declare that final variant of the essay checked with anti-plagiarism software and proofread by Expert Team is delivered to customer only with the guarantee that it will never be published online. The writers are aware of this policy and are stick to the rules of the company.

www.ProfEssays.com is aware of the attention that its customers pay to creativity and originality of papers. Taking into account informational abundance in contemporary world, and the popularity of custom essay writing services, ProfEssays tends to keep its leading positions in the market of professional and quality essay writing, employing only experienced writers with higher education and high-rated professionals in the fields of computer technologies. ProfEssays is a professional assistance in essay writing, so professional approach is guaranteed on all stages of creation of qualitative paper.
