Denver Honda dealer to continue offering high quality selection and availability of Honda Civics combined with professional customer service.

PR9.NET January 29, 2008 - Denver, Colorado - Mile High Honda today announced its continued focus on offering a wide selection of new and used Honda Civics. Mile High Honda located in Denver on South Havana is an established Denver Honda dealer of more than 20 years serving the Denver metro and Colorado Front Range areas. Mile High Honda's inventory of Honda Civics includes a broad selection of new and pre-owned vehicles. Prospective Honda Civic buyers are invited to visit Mile High Honda to test drive a Honda Civic of their choice.

The Honda Civic is unquestionably one of the most popular compact cars sold in Denver and nationwide. The Honda Civic boasts impressive fuel economy combined with performance that's made it a favorite car for many Denver and Colorado area residents. The Honda Civic has over time evolved through multiple generations of the car. The seventh generation of the Civic began in 2001 and ended in 2005. The current Civic is considered by some as the best yet. It's the most powerful and the most fuel-efficient, and comes in a wide range of models, from the Civic Si to the Civic Hybrid. In terms of premium features, the DX is the most basic, while the EX and LX versions offer additional trims and accessories. All versions are considered well-suited for Denver's year-round range of weather and associated road conditions. Interested Denver and Colorado Front Range area customers may contact Mile High Honda for additional information.

Mile High Honda combines the availability of the Honda Civics and other cars and trucks with its excellent service and full Honda dealer support. The Denver Honda dealer is open Monday through Saturday. Additional information about Mile High Honda and its inventory of Honda Civics is available at the website listed below.
