Founder and President of MediQuin Credentialing Services, Inc., Manette Quinn, will be featured in the entrepreneur panel at UC Irvine's Students to Start-ups Entrepreneurial Skills Workshop Series.

PR9.NET February 05, 2008 - Los Angeles, CA – Manette Quinn of MediQuin Credentialing Services, Inc. will share her advice on starting a new business at UC Irvine's Students to Start-ups workshop.

"It's an honor to be included in the entrepreneur panel at the Students to Start-ups workshop," notes Ms. Quinn. "The students and community members who attend this conference are looking for advice on starting their own businesses and I am proud to have been chosen to speak on this topic."

"Starting your own business is exciting, but it can also be frightening and stressful," continues Quinn. "I learned about business processes through hands on experience, but I'm happy to have this opportunity to share my experiences with everyone who attends this conference. I built my business from the ground up and have dozens of interesting stories and suggestions that I know the student's will appreciate."

Ms. Quinn will be speaking at the Students to Start-ups Entrepreneurial Skills workshop series on March 4, 2008 from Noon to 1:00 pm. The event will take place on UC Irvine's campus at the UCI Student Center, Moss Cove Room B. It's free to attend the workshop but seating is limited. If you are interested in attending please reserve your seat by calling 949-824-1172. A complimentary lunch will be served to all those who attend. Other speakers on the entrepreneur panel include Simon Singh, Svetla Lazarova Kibota & Robin Kibota.
