Universal Valve has been a top manufacturer in the Service Station industry for over 75 years providing quality and reliability, since 1932!

PR9.NET February 08, 2008 - Elizabeth, NJ - Universal Valve Co. has recently announced their Representative of the Year Award for 2007. The award was presented to Windward Marketing Group for their outstanding sales performance throughout the year of 2007.

Universal Valve has named Windward Marketing Group it's 2007 Representative of the year for the second consecutive year. Kevin Milbourn of Windward was presented the award for his exceptional and outstanding work as Universal's sales representative in Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Montana, Utah, Wyoming, and Oklahoma. Kevin's continuing hard work for the company has paid off with outstanding sales and new leads for the company. Universal Valve looks forward to working with the Windward Marketing Group towards continued success in the region with hope to grow sales even larger in the coming years.

Universal Valve would like to extend its gratitude to Kevin Milbourn and Windward Marketing Group for their excellence in sales and for their persistence in creating a strong brand, as well as to thank all of Universal's distributors who helped the Windward Marketing Group to obtain their sales goals.

About Universal Valve

At Universal Valve Company, Inc., quality is an integral part of every product and service we produce. It's been that way since we began in 1932.

You see it in every one of our products for the petroleum dispensing industry, such as service station valves and fittings, manholes, environmental products and above ground tank fittings.

Behind this 70-year history of quality achievement stands the deep commitment of our people, people who know, understand and care about your needs. At Universal, customer satisfaction isn't merely a slogan... it's our heritage. It's the goal of our every business relationship. It means Dependability. Availability. And always, Quality.
